Attendance: 11

Start: 12:09pm

Minutes

Motion to approve last meeting minutes, Patty. Larry seconds. All in favor.

Julie

Should we sponsor a dog poop bag station that will be up around the lake? It is $125 for a one time sponsorship. Greta motions to support this. Bill seconds. All in favor.

The Southwest Idaho Travel Association (SWIDA) wants us to become members. We are not currently. Annual membership is $35. We think just annual, but Julie might think it's $35 per member. She is checking on it. Patty motions to approve the annual membership if it is $35 a year, but not approve if it is $35/member/year. Larry seconds this motion. All in favor. Julie will find out and bring back to meeting on 8th.

There is a Chamber sign in the office. They want to install it on the northern side of the building on Market street. It is a one time fee of $50 to install sign to city. Jack motions to approve. Patty seconds. All in favor.

Judy- Mayor

The LOT will be on the November ballot. It would put in motion a 1% tax on goods up to $1000. The money will be used to improve and maintain streets, sidewalks, parks, etc.

October 5th is Hog Wild at Riverside Pines at 6pm. Tickets are $25 per person. Live music, lots of donations for prizes, and raffle items. Tickets are on sale at Lakefront, Watkins and the Bank.
